WILLIE HOPPE The Graft TRIMS SLOSSON

Boy Wonder at Billiard Cue is Still Champion of the World.

THREE THOUSAND SEE GAME.

Side Bets and Gate Receipts Raise Fund of Over $5,000 for Winner.

New York, March 27 .- Willie Hoppe, 19year-old champion billiard player of the world, successfully defended his title, which he won from Vignaux in Paris three months ago, by defeating George Slosson, the veteran player of this city tonight. The final score was 500 to 292 in fayor of Hoppe, who, in addition to retaining the championship trophy, won a side bet of $500 and the net gate receipts, which will amount to over $5,000. ceipts, which will amount to over $5,000. Most of the well known amateur and professional billiard player in the eastern states saw the game, which from the outset was somewhat disappointing, as neither of the contestants played up to the form which they showed in their practise exhibitions. Hoppe, however, proved to be Slosson's master after the twelfth inning.

MONEY FOR WINNER.

The seating room of the big hall in Grand Central palace, estimated at 2.100, was filled quickly and standing room was at a premium. Over 3.000 persons saw the match, which was for $500 a side, the world's championship at 18-1 bulk line billiards, the championship emblem and the net gate receipts.

Hoppe won the "bank." He selected the white ball and led off with a miss. Slosson also falled to score and Hoppe followed suit. Slosson with a single carom broke the ice, but missed a seemingly easy three-cushion shot. Hoppe scored one in each of the third and fourth, and Slosson added one more in the fourth. Hoppe then made a run of twenty-one, which included a brilliant four-cushion gathering shot.

Slosson got the balls in nice position and soon ran up twenty-one one tieing the score. With a beautiful place of nursing Slosson ran on to sixty-one, missing on a simple single cushion carom. Hoppe only added six to his score, slipping up on a short draw. Slosson contributed thirteen more, falling down on a short draw also. After several pretty gathering shots. Hoppe missed a single cushion attempt after scoring sixteen caroms. Slosson made one in the seventh inding and Hoppe gathered in fourteen. Slosson falled to gount in the eighth, and Hoppe added twenty-two to his string in the ninth, making his total eighty-one to Slosson's seventy-seven. Slosson fied the score and passed Hoppe again with six open table caroms. Hoppe passed the lomark in the thirteenth liming. Hopps maintained his lead up to the eighteenth linning, when the score was Hoppe 142. Slosson 129. Hoppe increased his lead with a run of fifty-six in the twenty-first inning, which was full of good allround billiards.

At the conclusion of the thirtieth inning the scores were Hoppe 266. Slosson 25. Hoppe seemed to have perfect control of the iveries in his thirty-first inning, but missed a two-cushion draw after he had made a run of thirty-eight. This made his tetal 294 to Slosson's 275.

Hoppe increased his lead to 373-301 with forty-five in the thirty-seventh inning and crossed the 40 point stage in the thirty-ninth with a run of forty-two. Slosson was nearly 100 points behind with a total of 315. With his score at 444, after a run of twenty-two in the forty-first inning. Hoppe was unable to get either object ball out of balk. Slosson replied with twenty-three. Two innings later Hoppe duplicated his run of twenty-try-two, brining his total score up to 411. Slosson gathered in thirty in the forty-third inning.
